The above is a subdivision that I have made of lot No Fifty nine in the Original Plan of the Town of Evansville, the seven small lots numbered from one to seven in the Public Yard belong to the respective lots of the same number, and are set apart for Privies, and the alleys marked are forever to be kept open for the benefit of the several lot holders, unless hereafter all persons interested in them shall mutually agree to close them. Done at Evansville this 29th day of June 1837.
